

Hadrian Beltrametti-Walker
Vice President Legal Services
Kempinski Hotels

Hadrian Beltrametti-Walker joined Kempinski in 2012 and is now the luxury hospitality management group's Vice President Legal Services. He oversees general corporate and commercial legal matters for the group worldwide, and advises the Management Board, senior management and various business units, ensuring Kempinski group interests are protected.

Hadrian joined Kempinski from Hilton Worldwide's European corporate offices where he gained experience in hotel management and franchise agreements, as well as real-estate law.

With a Bachelor of Laws degree from the University of Essex and Berlin Free University, and a Masters of Laws degree earned at the Pallas Consortium, Hadrian is qualified to practice in the UK and has extensive experience advising on intentional transactions.
