

Jurriaan Braat

Jurriaan Braat is Partner with Omni Bridgeway in the Geneva, Switzerland office and gained with the company over 13 years experience dealing with international trade law and cross-border litigation matters.

Since 1986 Omni Bridgeway has been funding and managing complex litigation and arbitration (ICSID, UNCITRAL, ICC, SCC) for investors, governments, insurers, multinationals, traders and construction companies with a focus on enforcement and recovery. Having recovered for its clients over US$ 2 billion in claims, Omni Bridgeway seeks to invest in high value cases in which its multidisciplinary teams can add value with top legal, finance, intelligence and economic research.

Jurriaan has direct experience working on cases involving cross-border debt recovery and enforcement in political risk countries, both against sovereigns and corporates in Africa, CIS, Middle East, Asia and Latin America.

Prior to joining Omni Bridgeway, Jurriaan worked for approximately 5 years with Amsterdam-based international law firm DLA Piper, where he specialized in the field of international trade, (cross-border) litigation, insurance, insolvency and banking law. As a lawyer he has advised companies on insolvency and bankruptcy matters and has been appointed as receiver in several bankruptcies. Jurriaan obtained a Masters in Dutch law at the Vrije Universiteit in Amsterdam and studied at the University of Pretoria, South Africa. His languages include Dutch, English, German, Afrikaans and Italian.
