

Tyler Mace is an Assistant General Counsel at Philip Morris International in Lausanne, Switzerland. He focuses on regulatory litigation and has significant experience in international dispute resolution in areas of intellectual property and trade. Prior to joining PMI, Tyler was a partner in the Washington, D.C. office of Kirkland & Ellis LLP handling complex commercial and criminal disputes before state, federal and international courts and tribunals.